IN MEMORIAM.

It was moved at Tarsus Sabbath School Aug. 24, and a committee appointed by the superintendent, W. H. Fessy, to draft resolutions expressive of the deep and heartfelt sorrow of the superintendent, teachers and pupils in the loss they have sustained by the death of little SALLIE, daughter of Capt. Wm. S. and Nannie Martin, who departed this life Aug. 16, 1878, aged 7 years. parted this life Aug. 16, 1873, aged 7 years.

Resolved, That while we bow with humble submission to the will of Almighty God, Who has removed this lovely child from a world of trouble, to a home where angels dwell, we each and every one cherish fondly her memory. May we be patient in affliction as she was patient, and tranquil and triumphant as she was in the final hour.

Resolved, That in the death of little Sallle, this school has lost one of its brightest ornaments. Always modest, obliging and unassuming to her teachers and classmates, she had become endeared in the hearts of nnassuming to her teachers and classmates, she had become endeared in the hearts of all. But alas' her prattling voice is hushed, her active pulse is stilled, for death has stretched forth his remorseless hand, and folded to his cold embrace this one so beautiful, so young, so devotedly loved.

Resolved, That the condolence and prayers of this Sabbath School are hereby affectionately tendered in behalf of her afflicted father, mother, sisters and brother, and may they feel assured that their loss is her eternal gain; remembering "The young, the beautiful, the fair, Must cross that valley dark, It matters not how full of life— Death loves a shining mark.

Though youth be full of health and And cheerful as the lark, [strength yet death is in the midst of life— He loves a shining mark." and Painter's Material for Resolved, That a copy of these resolu-tions be spread upon the minutes of Tarsus Sabbath School, and one be sent to her be-reaved parents, the Carksville Chronicle and the Nashville Christian Advocate.

HICKORY WILD ACADEMY. The second term of this Institute begins lst Monday in Sept., 1873, and closes June 12, 1874. The course of instruction will embrace the Sciences, Ancient Languages, French, Music, Drawing, Painting, etc.

The principal, assisted by his sister, Mrs. E. S. Knott, and her daughters, proposes, and from the flattering success of the first term expects, to build up a first-class boarding school. The neighborhood is bealthful, moral and intelligent. The buildings are commodious and the grounds tasteful. We feel assured young ladies can find no safer and more pleasant retreat while pursuing a thorough course.
